

AMERICA'S GREATEST WEEKLY.

THE TOLEDO BLADE,

TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States.

CIRCULATION, - - - 200,000

Popular in Every State.

The seventy-fourth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period of its remarkable career. It is now read each week by more than a million people. Its field is not circumscribed by State boundaries, but involves the length and breadth of the United States, giving it an unquestionable right of claiming to be the greatest national weekly newspaper in the country.

The Weekly Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the fireside, and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome. The news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner, and the various departments of The Blade are edited with painstaking care. The Household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greatest number of fiction lovers; the Question Bureau is a scrapbook of information; the Farmstead columns are conducted with the purpose of giving the patrons a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected, but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making The Blade worth many times the price of subscription—one dollar a year. Sample copies mailed free. Address,

THE BLADE, Toledo, Ohio.

Oldest Man In Kentucky.

Some 20 miles from Whitesburg in a quaint log cabin home among the foothills of the Cumberland mountains resides Squire Sam Sanders, who will be 118 years old on the 19th of June, 1910. He is still hale and hearty and enjoys his three meals a day. He avers that his eyesight is better than when he was 50 years old. He has cut his third set of teeth and is now growing a second crop of black hair. He has been married six times and is the father of 23 children, all of whom are living, his oldest son being 92 years old. Four of his wives died and he was divorced from one. He has been married to his present wife eight years, having wedded her on the eve of his 110th birthday, she being in her 75th year.

The local paper is the best local history of its section obtainable.
A person could get almost any price asked for early files of local newspapers of a hundred years or more ago. Historians used to ignore them, but the old files of early newspapers are now searched with much avidity by the geneal-ogist and historian and student of economic conditions.

made a trip to Maytown Saturday, returning Monday.

tle baby. We join our sympathy

April 25. BLUE-EYED ROSE.

Two schoolboys had been repeatedly cautioned for coming late to school but without avail.
Finally the master threatened them with a severe caning if they transgressed again. For two mornings they were punctual, but on the third they were late again and were promptly called to the master's desk for punishment.

"Now, Tom," said the principal,
"if you can give me a good excuse for being late I will let you off."

"Please, sir," said Tom, "I dreamt I was going to Canada and when I heard the first school bell I thought it was the steamboat bell."

"Now, Jack," he said, turning to the other culprit, "what excuse have you to offer?"

"Please, sir," replied Jack. "I was waiting to see Tom off."

We notice in our exchanges a number of towns are having heavy penalties to pay on account of damages sustained by dilapidated sidewalks. A broken board in the walk cost one town $2,500. A word to the wise is sufficient.

MURPHY FORK.

Will Ayers moved from Henry Murphy's to Grassy Creek.

Rev. Doc Stamper preached at the Ben Murphy school house last Friday night.

Andrew Couch, of Bonny, was on the creek Sunday, mingling with his friends.

Ben Murphy left last week for Winchester market, where he will have a good bunch of cattle.

Miss Ethel Cecil, of Consolation, was on the creek Sunday and took in the preaching at the Ben Murphy school house.

Ben Murphy bought a fine saddle mare from a party by the name of Lewis, of near West Liberty, for a private price.

Cesar Lindon, the genial Circuit court clerk of Wolfe county, was on the creek Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mort Cecil and family.

A certain drummer of Mize dashed through our village Sunday and failed to show his samples. Perhaps he didn't want to be caught in a Hale storm.

Revs. Bill Yocum, Clint Byrd, Pete Everett, Gullet, John Strickland and Tom Rasmick were the leading orators at the Ben Murphy school house Sunday.

Dennie Nickell, of Middlesboro; Pearl Gullet, of Neola, and Miss Della Murphy, of Mize, were seen at the services held at the Ben Murphy school house Sunday.

April 25. POET.

A rider seeking information as to the direction of a village at which he had planned to spend the night, addressed himself to a youth in the shade of a cottonwood tree reading a dime novel and smoking a cigarette, while a bundle of school books enclosed by a strap lay beside him. To the question the boy replied simply by raising his foot and pointing westward.

"Son," said the stranger, "if you will show me a lazier move than that I will give you fifty cents."

The boy rolled over on his side with evident effort and said, "Put it in this pocket."

New York, April 18, '10.
Editor THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD, Hazel Green, Ky.

Dear Sir: Will you kindly send me a copy of THE HERALD of the issue of April 7th, in which appeared a most interesting article concerning Mr. Lampton's recent appointment on your Governor's staff? Mr. Lampton, or rather Colonel Lampton, has a large following around here and his admirers would make a good sized army. Very truly yours, F. R. PETRIE.
